SUMMARY

A 55-acre military barracks area is located on the south edge of Kamenka-Bugskaya (Figure 1). It is served by a good, hard-surface road and has access to a single-track railroad. No aircraft facilities are visible in the area.

Within the installation (Figures 2 and 3) are eight large, multistory barracks, administration buildings, three vehicle maintenance sheds, a storage building, nine small storage utility buildings, an L-shaped storage building which is road-served and within a security fence, and another secured area with two small buildings and a possible cylindrical tank. An athletic field and a driver training course are within the fenced area. Outside the installation, and adjacent to it on the west side, are 16 probable dependents quarters and two small associated buildings.

DESCRIPTION OF INSTALLATIONRailroad Service

A single-track rail line passes close by the west side of the installation.

Road Service

Hard-surface roads throughout the installation lead to the main roads in Kamenka-Bugskaya.

Administrative and Troop Housing Areas

Area D1 contains three E-shaped multistory administration buildings, barracks and five multistory barracks.

Area D2 contains 16 dependents quarters, two utility buildings adjacent to the dependents quarters, and three support buildings.

Equipment Storage/Maintenance Area

Area J contains one large storage building, three 350- by 50-foot vehicle maintenance storage sheds, one L-shaped 1,250- by 25-foot secured storage building, two small buildings and a probable secured tank within a secured area (dimensions unknown), and six storage utility buildings, a probable gatehouse, and an athletic field with a fieldhouse, all within a walled area.

Athletic Field

Area K contains a U-shaped track, an athletic field, and a field house.

Driver Training Area

Area M contains multiple, circular tracks used for driver training.
